

Consider a change you are thinking about making to your business. Write it in the center of the graphic. Reflect and collaborate with others to determine the effect that change will have on all of your business systems. Make notes in the system boxes. What additional changes will you need to make to your business systems to make this major change successful?

What is the net effect on your business performance?